

Wendy Karr has been a member of the Unity movement since arriving at Christ Church Unity Centre (now Unity of Greater Hamilton) in 1984, receiving her Licensed Unity Teacher status in 2000. She is passionate about and knowledgeable of Unity's history and teachings, and has served in a volunteer capacity at the Unity Village Archives.

Wendy has led Sunday services, Spiritual Education and Enrichment (SEE) classes, and workshops in Unity churches and centres throughout Ontario and into the U.S. Most recently, Wendy has accepted the appointment as Licensed Unity Teacher Representative to Unity Canada's Board of Directors. She is also well-known for her love of frogs, a constant reminder to First Rely On God.
